

Alliance luncheon features elected officials' views on Oregon and the economic crisis

Congressman Greg Walden and Oregon State Treasurer Randall Edwards weighed in on the economic crisis at an Alliance-hosted luncheon event Oct. 10. Attended by 60 individuals, the event presented a unique opportunity for Alliance members to hear the Federal and State perspectives in an open discussion style format on how the financial crisis will affect Oregon and the nation, and what changes should be implemented in order to prevent future crises.
