

EMERGING PROFESSIONALS --- OF PORTLAND

The EPOP board meets the second Monday of each month and is responsible for the following items:

- Establishing a culture of volunteerism and highlighting the important work of nonprofits by identifying EPOP's 10 annual nonprofit partners.
 - These partners are showcased at EPOP Last Tuesday events every other month.
- Recruiting and retaining emerging professional in Portland via civic and social opportunities.
 - This includes having a strong presence on social media and coordinating Last Tuesday events each month.
- Developing opportunities for emerging professionals to sharpen their business skills and learn about various industries in the Portland area.
 - This is done through three Exclusive events held throughout the year that feature a panel of established professionals that can provide mentor advice to the audience.

Value of participating on the EPOP board:

- Development of leadership and organizational skills.
 - Exposure and networking opportunities with other emerging leaders.
- Opportunity to serve as liaison to Portland Business Alliance board of directors.
 - One rep from EPOP board will attend Alliance board meeting quarterly to report on EPOP activities.
 - This person could be an elected position (chair or vice-chair).
- Opportunity to attend Leadership Portland (your company must sponsor you at $2,950)
